

Alexandridis Anastasios (Christos)

Dr. Anastasios Alexandridis, born in Thessaloniki in 1963. He completed his Master Degree studies in France (D.E.A. in Mathematical Economics- University of AIX-MARSEILLE III). In 1991 he completed his PhD studies in Economic Science (University of Macedonia, department of Economics). In 1992 he started his professional career at the Federation of Industries of Northern Greece (FING), as Deputy General Manager and Head of Research and Analysis and then as General Manager of FING. As of July 2001 until May 2003 he was the Executive Vice President of FING. In June 2005, he became Head of the Managing Authority of Community Initiative Programmes INTERREG III, responsible for the administration of seven programmes with total budget 900 M€. Today he is independent – non executive member at the BoD of EVROFARMA AVEE Milk Industry, ALUMIL MILONAS, COMPUCON and member of the Executive Committee of FING. Dr Anastasios Alexandridis is FING's scientifically responsible for the publication of the World Competitiveness Yearbook. Since 2007 he joined the Greek International Business Association (SEVE) as an Executive Member of the BoD and currently is Executive Vice President.