

Erik Nordkamp

President & Managing Director of Pfizer Hellas

Erik Nordkamp took on the position of President & Managing Director of Pfizer Hellas in August 2012. Erik Nordkamp is 45 years old and has been working in the pharmaceutical market for the past 15 years. He joined Pfizer in October 2010 and had a very critical role as Head of Strategy/Senior Director for Europe and Canada. From this position Erik Nordkamp led the strategic evaluation and upgrading of the company's operating model. Before joining Pfizer he worked for Eli Lilly where he had a variety of operational & strategic leadership roles (Business Unit Leader positions in the UK and Germany) and regional strategic leadership roles (setting up a lean six sigma organization and initiating and leading the transformation of the European commercial model). Prior to joining Lilly, Erik worked in strategic management consulting with Arthur D. Little in Brussels for 4 years and obtained an MBA from Erasmus Rotterdam School of management. Erik is a Dutch national who graduated from Nijmegen university (Netherlands) with a Health Sciences degree. He also holds a European Master in Environmental management from Varese (Italy) and an MBA from Erasmus Rotterdam (Netherlands). Erik is fluent in Dutch (native language), English, German and speaks conversational French. He is learning Greek at the moment. He is married and has 2 children aged 9 and 5.