

Roberto A. Jacchia, Avvocato, Member of the Italian Bar

Roberto A. Jacchia graduated in law (LL.D., cum laude) at Genoa State University in 1968. Internships at the European Commission and the Council of Europe. Admitted to the Bar in 1969. Worked with the then first international law firm of Italy until 1975. Founding and name partner of De Berti & Jacchia (1975).

Engaged in teaching at Genoa State University and Milan Catholic University until 1973. Maintained close links with the academic community. Author of legal works and articles.

Chief areas of concentration comprise competition law, EU law, pharmaceutical and regulatory law and IP law. In charge of the EU and regulatory practice and the Brussels office of the firm. He represented numerous multinationals of the pharmaceutical, gaming, food and beverage industries in cases and matters of regulatory, EU, antitrust and IP law. He has been in charge of the defense of large undertakings in cartel cases, domestic and Community filings, proceedings before the European Commission, the General Court and the Court of Justice. He has broad experience of litigation, including in the Administrative Courts, the Supreme Court and the Constitutional Court of Italy.

Languages : English, French, German, Russian (notions).