

Politis Dimitris, Managing Director & Head of Global Banking, HSBC Greece

Dimitris graduated from American College of Greece with a BSc in International Business and obtained his MBA in International Business & Export Management from City University Business School.

Dimitris joined HSBC (Corporate Banking) in 1993 and HSBC Investment Bank plc in 1996. During the period September 2000–June 2001, he was seconded to HSBC Republic offering Corporate Finance and Advisory services to the Private Banking clientele of HSBC Group. In June 2001 he was appointed General Manager of CCF Greece.

In October 2003, Dimitris was named Head of Corporate and Commercial Banking of HSBC Group in Greece, supervising the Investment Banking Department. In March 2007 he was named Managing Director and Head of Global Banking.

He has assumed relationship coverage responsibilities for HSBC's worldwide business with the leading Greek Corporate Groups and Financial Institutions. He is also heading the Athens-based Investment Banking Advisory Team and is responsible for the Real Estate, Project Finance and Structured Finance portfolio.

Dimitris sits on the Executive Committee of HSBC Greece and is a Member of the Board of HSBC Securities.