

NIKOLAOS ROUMNAKIS, Consultant

Nikos Roumnakis studied Physics at University of Athens and has a Master Degree in Automation Engineering and a Master Degree in Business Administration. He is founder of Virtual 3IT Reality Ltd, a company that focuses on the sales, marketing and distribution of innovative technology products for the gaming and hospitality industries in Greece and Cyprus. Furthermore, the firm can represent or provide support and consulting services to other companies of the same industry that want to establish their business in the above mentioned regions. Prior to this he was General Manager in Hellenic Horse Racing Organization and has 20 years of experience working in various managerial positions for multinational companies.