

Alexander Kelaiditis, Executive Director, Head of Greece Coverage,
Goldman Sachs Greece

Alexander Kelaiditis is responsible for Goldman Sachs Greece investment banking business and has over 10 years banking experience covering Greece and Central and Eastern Europe. He has been involved in a variety of corporate advisory, primary and secondary offering transactions, strategic planning, restructuring and M&A assignments in Greece and the CEE region. Alexander graduated from Amherst College with a degree in Economics.