

Eustathios P. Koronakis founded the law office "Koronakis & Associates" in 1991 in Thessaloniki, having previously served as an Officer in the Greek Police.

At this time, he runs two law offices, in Athens and in Thessaloniki.

Based on expertise and specialization, his law office has grown to one of the leading firms in Greece in the exclusive area of practice concerning the gaming law, as well as the operation and licensing of food and beverages health - regulated premises.

Moreover, Eustathios Koronakis and his Associates, early identified the possibility of the foreign companies providing bet services and games of chance to operate in Greece, so they informed companies interested in the Greek Gaming Market.

The Law Office represented 4 of the 24 companies included in the list issued by the Greek Ministry of Finance and which are allowed to provide legally their online bet services in Greece, during the transitional period provided by the Article 50 § 12 of Law 4002/2011.

Furthermore, Eustathios Koronakis is one of the Attorneys of the under establishment Internet Providers Association, which involves companies that currently provide legally their services in Greece.