

Iraklis Lappas, Secretary General, Board of Directors of POEPPP

Iraklis Lappas was born in Athens in 1972 and lived in Vouliagmeni ever since. After graduating Vouliagmeni's high-school in 1989, he studied General Business Administration from 1989 to 1993 at Southeastern College and earned the Bachelor degree. He then served the navy force from 1993 to 1995. Before even finishing school, he was working as an assistant at his father's OPAP shop until he opened his own, in 1996. Currently, he is a representative of OPAPs 5000 agents, as a Secretary General, in the board of directors of the network. He is the father of a child and has been offshore sailing national champion, and 6th world champion.
