

ANTONIS TSOUFAKIS

Responsible for regulation, licensing and authorization procedures, Hellenic Gambling Commission

Graduated as Naval Architect and Marine Engineer at the Athens Technical University.

He has served for more than 15 years as executive in the Hellenic Organization for the support of small and medium sized enterprises.

He has specialized on regulating frameworks for straightening industry, on the assessment of investment projects and inspection of their implementation.

He has been working in Hellenic Gambling Commission since March 2012, as responsible for regulation, licensing and authorization procedures.